Hyderabad Metro Rail to Operate Special Trains on 25th September

Hyderabad, 23 September 2022: In view of the upcoming T20 cricket match on 25th September at Rajiv Gandhi International Cricket Stadium, Uppal, Hyderabad Metro Rail has taken various steps for the convenience of passengers. Special trains have been arranged from 2300 hrs on 25th September from Stadium Metro station with the last train at 0100 hrs on 26th September.

There will be connecting trains from Ameerpet and JBS Parade Grounds.

During Special Trains service, entries are permitted at Uppal, Stadium, and NGRI metro stations only. All other stations would be open for exits only.

We encourage customers to purchase return tickets in advance or at least while exiting the Stadium metro station before going to the match.

Customers are also encouraged to use smart cards for ease of travel and to avoid queuing.

Digital tickets would not be sold post regular hours of 22:15 hrs. Existing tickets which have been purchased before 22:15 hrs would work till the closure of business only from Uppal, Stadium, and NGRI.

Passengers are requested to cooperate with security personnel and staff of Hyderabad Metro Rail in their efforts towards keeping their journey safe.
